On 7 June 2005, Balai Ikhtisas Malaysia (BIM) {Malaysian Professional Centre}, the largest professional NGO in the country, of which IIA Malaysia is a member, organised a Courtesy Call to the Prime Minister, YAB Dato' Seri Abdullah Bin Haji Ahmad Badawi. President of IIA Malaysia, Wee Hock Kee, participated in this meeting which took place at the Kementerian Keselamatan Dalam Negeri, Putrajaya. The delegates comprising council members of BIM, the past presidents of various institutions of BIM and the secretariat of BIM, presented four recommendations to the Prime Minister:

- Attain greater recognition for the Malaysian professionals
- Create a more conducive environment for the professional services to flourish
- Challenge to make Malaysia the Centre of Excellence for professional services in the ASEAN Free Trade Area
- Professionals in the preservation of the environment for sustainable development
